AMERICAN FLAG FORMED BY GIRLS FEATURE IN PARADE

Fourth of July Committe Arranging For Fine Display

INDUSTRIES REPRESENTED

Expected That There will be Large Number of Floats in the Parade

From present indications the industrial section of the mammoth parade to be given here on the Fourth will be a imposing feature. Several of the business people here are already preparing to have floats in line and more are expected to be on hand when the parade forms. The Singer Sewing Machine company will be in line, while Frank McClure, the Fifth street grocer, will have something to show as well as the Atlantic Tea company. Adolph Beigel, of course, will be on deck. John Majors, chief marshal of the parade, will place the floats in good position, and urges all who can to make a showing.

At the meeting Tuesday night, it was decided to authorize Prof. I. T. Daniel, musical director of the school, to drill 400 or 500 girls dressed in National colors of red, white and blue to form an American flag. Prof. Daniel has had experience in this feature, having drilled a corps of girls to represent a flag several years ago in Canton, O., when the President visited that city.

Chief Marshal Majors states that several citizens from various parts of town have volunteered to help organize the boys to march in the parade. He asks the help of others in this feature, as a "Boys' Brigade" would make an imposing feature.

As arranged now the order of exercises will be the big parade in the morning, followed by the speeches by John Mitchell and Judge J. F. Taylor from stands erected in "The Pines." This will take up the entire forenoon, and in the afternoon the sports and attractions will be pulled off. These will include a 100 yard dash open to miners only, for a $50 prize; two balloon ascensions with two parachute drops; the firemen's hose race; the ball fight, and ball game, with the great fireworks display in the evening. The Italian Band of Charleroi has been engaged as one of the three bands for the occasion, and will appear in their new uniforms for the first time. Band concerts will be a feature.

Letters have been received from a Wild West Show, which offers to give five attractions on the streets and many other shows asking for concessions. Burgess G. W. Risbeck states that he will not permit dynamite canes or Jackson fire crackers to be used in the streets and he hopes that none of the merchants will offer them for sale. Other meetings will be held from time to time to still further perfect the arrangements.

CHRISTIANS TAKE OVER WASHINGTON PRESBYTERIANS

Top Notchers Prove Too Much For the Team on Bottom Rung

When the score keeper got tired of keeping tally of the errors, the hits and the scores, and the numerous other incidentals, he perspired at the Washington Avenue-Christian baseball affair last night. The game was repiete with all the trimming that one could not wish, and errors especially predominated.

The Christians got four in the first, one in the second, two in the fifth and just for fun four in the fourth. The Washington Avenues just for fun, nothing else, scored three in the first, one in the second and by a mighty wave of bases on balls one in the sixth.

The game was called in the sixth on account of darkness at which juncture the score, was 11 bones for the Christians to five wishes for the Washington Avenues. Score:

WILL BE HOME SHORTLY

Monessen Paper Says He Will Explain His Ten Days Absence From Home.

The Monnessen News of yesterday's date contained the following article:

"The mystery surrounding the sudden disappearance of Fred Patton, employed as a chemist at the Pittsburg Steel plant and a son of Dr. Patton of North Belle Vernon, has been finally cleared up as the young man has been heard from in Denver, Colorado and telegraphed his sister, Mrs. R. F. Allen, that he would arrive home today.

"Young Patton, who is about 23 years old and married, left home about seven o'clock Wednesday a week ago and until this, Wednesday, morning nothing was heard of his whereabouts and his wife to whom a child was born a short time ago was greatly worried. In an interview with his sister, Mrs. Allen, a representative of this paper was informed that Mr. Patton telergaphed that he would explain all on his arrival home today."

DESERVED PROMOTION

Charleroi Young Man Advanced to Place in Pittsburg Office

OTHER CHANGES ARE MADE

Herbert Swartzlander, who for about two years has occupied the position of shipping clerk in the local office of the Pittsburg Plate Glass company, has received notice of his promotion to a position in a department of the Pittsburg office. William Kuhn of Speers, who has been in the local office for some years, will succed Mr. Swartzlander in the local office and Mr. Kuhns' place will be taken by Bannister Roberts of Charleroi. Mr. Swartzlander is a deserving young man and his promotion is well merited. Mr. Kuhn is also a faithful and capable employe of the local plant, and doubtless will make good. Mr. Roberts is the son of R. A. Roberts of Crest avenue, and is a graduate of High School and Douglas Business College.

Call It An Outrage.

To The Mail: One of the most unmanly and brutal affrays took place in plain view of from 20 to 30 citizens of Charleroi this morning in which two railroad herilings or so-called detectives played the part in one of the most disgraceful scenes ever heard of in any civilized community. That a riot was averted is due to the fact that the liberty-loving citizens of Charleroi expect to bring the principals to justice. This is how it happpened. A poor Hungarian just landed in this country, after leaving his train, strayed along the railroad track in search of his friends. He was immediately pounced upon, and with a nipper on each wrist and not satisfied with this, he was thrown on his back and beaten with a billy until the hearts of those who saw it grew sick.

A representative of the Austrian counsul in Pittsburg came to Charleroi yesterday in regard to the case of the arrest of Marlin Chandos for trespassing on the railroad. Memorial Day.

Before another issue of the Mail appears Memorial Day will have come and gone. With preliminary religious services on Sunday, followed by the solemn tributes on Monday to our soldier dead in commemorative observance of the day and date, the Nation practically takes a holiday. Work will be suspended as far as possible, and the day will be devoted to recreation.

While there are some who believe the day should be observed in solemn austerity, this is not in accord with human nature. It is a day to be glad, rather than to be sad. To our hallowed dead we ever cherish a loyal sentiment, but it is not God's providence for man to continually mourn his bereavements. Life has its duties and obligations, and it is those who meet them with a smiling and undaunted courage who best fulfill the destiny for which they were created. Poignant grief is softened by time into tender memories, which though cherished, cannot be made a living rule of action. Rational enjoyment and recreation on Memorial Day does not detract in the least from the solemn import of the occasion, and it makes better men and women of all who take full advantage of the holiday. Sunshine and happiness are more conducive to patriotism than mourning and gloom.

Louder Than Words.

Actions speak louder than words. The man who professes a principle which his actions belie, inspires not only no confidence on the part of his neighbors, but excites their contempt, which is merited. This is the case with T. L. Kennedy, who is opposing Congressman J. K. Tener for Congress. Mr. Kennedy professes one thing, which his previous actions show him to have opposed in the past.

In one of his letters to the public Mr. Kennedy poses "As an ardent admirer of Theodore Roosevelt, and a firm believer in the policies for which he stood for." Yet Mr. Kennedy, while a member of the Legislature from Beaver county, lent his official action to aid in a hostile demonstration designed by politicians to embarrass President Roosevelt's administration. This was in the session of 1905, when a resolution was introduced commending President Roosevelt's purpose to secure legislation by Congress to stop discrimination in freight rates and the payment of rebates by railroads, and requesting our Senators and Congressmen to support such measures. Mr. Kennedy opposed it, and on the final passage of the resolution he voted "No."

This action is on record in the House Journal of 1905, and can be found in pages 303-308. This is how he stood by the Roosevelt policies when in the Legislature, and on this record he asks the support of Col. Roosevelt's supporters and friends.

Our Celebration.

During the Memorial Day holiday, when many people will meet and greet friends from a distance, one should not forget our Fourth of July celebration. This will be a good time to boost the affair, and to put it before the public in a personal way. The forthcoming celebration has been and is being systematically boosted, but personal boosting also reaches a class that may be indifferent to printed advertisements.

Every Charleroi resident who receives visitors at home, or who goes away to spend Memorial Day, should not neglect to exploit the attractions which Charleroi will present on the Fourth. We are going to have a big day, and every one who comes here will get more value received for the money in the way of thrillers and sensations than can be had elsewhere. Impress this upon every one you meet Monday, and results are sure to follow.

THE MYSTERY OF MARS.

Old but Unsolved Problem. Is There Animal Life on the Planet?

With a planet so old as Mars and so far along in the process of life extinction the conditions of life would be severe, and only a highly intellectual and scientifically developed race could endure and master them. The engineering skill and constructive capacity to control the annual floods from the poles, store the waters and build the thousands of miles of huge canals would require scientific knowledge beyond that possessed by us at the present time and financial resources in excess of those we have yet accumulated. The nation that finds the digging of a little ditch at Panama so great a task would be helpless in the face of such a problem as these thousands of miles of Martian canals, if, indeed, canals they be. Yet, in view of the greater life age of Mars, such higher intelligence would be natural in the regular process of development, assuming that it has ever been the abode of intellectual life.

Scientists are in the main in a receptive state on this subject. They are not ready to admit that the existence of life on that planet has been proved. They do not deny it, but call for greater proof than a plausible theory. Among others than scientists there is in the main a disposition not to accept the Martian human life theory or the theory of life on any of the thousands of spheres that wheel and glisten in illimitable space. They seem to think that such a theory conflicts with religion and dwarfs man and his importance in the scheme of creation.

This seems to be a very narrow view to take, since it appears to set bounds upon the infinite power and creative desires of the Almighty, whose great scheme of mortal and immortal life is not necessarily confined to a single planet or the few billions of human beings who are born and die upon it. As to dwarfing the importance of man, a few billions more added to the billions on earth would make little difference. Man is at best a small and insignificant creature, but if all embracing wisdom, power and love takes solicitous note of him it would be limiting those infinite qualties to say that one planet must be his abiding place. Therefore the question of human intelligence on Mars or any other planet of the solar system or the other great systems in remote space should be purely and simply a scientific one, to be accepted as true only when proved, but not to be rejected through sentiment or for any other reason whatever except lack of proof.—St. Louis Sta

THE WAKING PROCESS.

Easy Scheme to End Your Sleep at Any Hour You Wish.

"We hear it frequently asserted that if persons will impress the thought firmly upon their minds and continue thinking about it until they have fallen asleep that they desire to awake at a certain hour in the morning they will do so without fail," said Dr. Joseph Boehm in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "But how many people have tried this method of insuring a prompt awakening at a given hour in the morning only to find their rest throughout the night disturbed and uneasy.

"The brain will usually respond to the will and awaken one in the morning near the desired hour under any circumstances, but to prevent the unbroken, uneasy sleep the adoption of only a very simple device is necessary. The last thing before getting into bed take a watch or clock and turn the hands to the hour at which one wishes to rise and gaze at this just long enough to fix the hour firmly on the retentive memory. Then if no other absorbing thoughts intervene between that and the moment one is locked in slumber the night's rest will be easy and unbroken, and promptly at the hour in the morning, as a rule, one will find oneself released from sleep and wide awake. There is no need to repeat it over and over in the mind. All this makes the brain uneasy and results in the disturbed slumber. Simply look at the watch or clock, as I have indicated, and the influence of the mind over matter will be clearly demonstrated in the morning. Try it some night and observe how smoothly this physiological fact works."

Optimistic.

"My wife is a very optimistic woman."

"Indeed she is."

"Noticed it, have you?"

"Yes; when I was talking with her yesterday she said that if you ever died she would marry again because she felt sure that she could do better next time."—Houston Post.

Eluding the Officers.

Here is an amusing description of one of Balzac's periods of impecuniosity. Mery, the poet, a great friend of Balzac, was an inveterate gambler and rarely left the card table before daybreak. His way lay past the Cafe de Paris, and for four consecutive mornings he had met Balzac strolling leisurely up and down dressed in pantalon a pieds trousers not terminating below the ankle, but with feet in them like stockings and frock coat with velvet facings. The second morning Mery felt surprised at the coincidence; the third he was puzzled; the fourth he could hold out no longer and asked Balzac the reason of these nocturnal perambulations roundabout the same spot.

Balzac put his hand in his pocket and produced an almanac showing that the sun did not rise before 5:50. "I am being tracked by the officers of the tribunal de commerce and obliged to hide myself during the day, but at this hour I am free and can take a walk, for as long as the sun is not up they cannot arrest me."

Russian Vengeance.

The Russian revlutionaries have absolutely no mercy on those who betray them. It is well known that in the year 1903 a traitor caught at Odessa was bricked up alive in a cellar.

Regnier, a French spy in the pay of the Russian police, for a long time eluded the vengeance of the revolutionaries. But they caught him at last, and that just at the moment when he fancied himself safe. His body was found in his cabin on a ship which reached Antwerp. He had been suffocated by fumes of sulphureted hydrogen. How this was done was never discovered.

SOLDIER BOYS HAVE THE CALL AS CANDIDATES

Sheriff Jud Bruff Makes Enthusiastic Address to Tenth Men Who Rally For "Hop" Anderson

POLIAICAL SHARPS GO DOWN BEFORE WARRIORS

In the rally by Spanish-American war veterans Wednesday evening in the Hotel Siegel at Washington, Sheriff Jud Bruff of Allegheny county, who himself, as a soldier candidate made a winning fight and won an overwhelming victory in Allegheny county, made a stirring speech endorsing the candidacy of Attorney A. H. Anderson for State Senate. As a soldier Sheriff Bruff's address could not be otherwise than would that would quicken the pulse of every man who had faced death upon the field of battle. As he said, the soldier's service to his country are not forgot when guns of the political enemy are pointed toward him.

Sheriff Bruff said in part:

Gentlemen and Comrades: We have invided your fair county tonight, not for the purpose of dictating to you

whom you shall vote for, or state senator in this district, but to ask your respectful consideration of the claims and qulifications of our old friend and comrade of Phillippine fighting days when he in common with many others, fought, bled and swam for our country. Some of the boys didn't come back, some came back in their coffins and many returned to die from illness and disease contracted in the Philippine marches and jungles.

"I do not wish to make a spread-eagle speech, for should I attempt one would fail, but it is well to remember in time of peace, the services of those who have offered themselves as targets for the enemy's bullets in time of war.

"The voters have never failed to show their preference for a soldier over a politician. Take our presidents for example. After the Civil war we had Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Harrison. They were not politicians but they made good presidents. Their honor and integrity stands out today undisputed by any.

"Occasionally we find the soldier and politician combined in one. Take Roosevelt for example. He was a great soldier and who shall say that he is not the greatest politician of the age.

"The soldier boys ought to be able to beat the politicians at their own game The first lesson they learn after "Hayot," "Strawfoot" is to act in unison. What would be the outcome of a battle if every soldier went in on his own book and fought according to his own notion of how things ought to be done. Inglorious and decisive defeat would be the portion of such a ridiculous army. Just so in the political game. Unity of action wins. Look at the Grand Army. To a man they stood back of Grant, Hayes Garfield and Harrison. Look at the case of Roosevelt. The politicians tried their best to sidetrack him and what was the result? He became the most powerful man politically that the country has ever known.

"With these examples before us and other lesser ones all around us let us get together and show the "organization" that politics is a game that they have no mortgage on.

"In Allegheny county a year ago I was a candidate for sheriff. The "organization" laughed at my humble claims and proceeded to slate an old office holder who had served them well. What the soldier boys did to that outfit is a matter of history. They charged the selfish combine front and flank and sent them scooting for the tall timbers.

"They are back in the game again today but they are mighty careful to say nothing derogatory of the soldier because they have discovered that the people will not stand for it. I wish gratefully to remember the services of the veterans in that glorious campaign of Civil war days. They showed that they still know how to rally around the flag with that same courage as in the old days when they charged into certain death at such places as Cold Harbor and Fredericksburg.

"In commending to your attention the services of Comrade Anderson, I am not unmindful of the fact that a state senator should possess ability and integrity as well as courage. Having known Comrade Anderson and having been familiar with his career in the Philippines and at home, I do not hesitate to say that he is an ideal man for the place. He is a man of progessive ideas, and will, if nominated and elected, serve his constituents as well at Harrisburg as he did for $15.60 a month in the the Philippines. Having been a soldier and faithful citizen, it seems to me, is sufficient guarantee that he will make a good senator.

"All the other surrounding counties which have been represented in the Philippines have accorded too the survivors political recognition. In Beaver county, four of the county offices, namely, Register, Recorder, Prothonotary and clerk of courts have been held by the members of the home company. In Greensburg, the two last district attorneys have been taken from the 10th Regiment and today, I have the honor to represent the old regiment as an official of Allegheny county. I see no reason why the two companies from Washington county with so many available and able men, should not be accorded political recognition as well as the other counties.

AMERICAN FLAG FORMED BY GIRLS FEATURE IN PARADE

Fourth of July Committe Arranging For Fine Display

INDUSTRIES REPRESENTED

Expected That There will be Large Number of Floats in the Parade

From present indications the industrial section of the mammoth parade to be given here on the Fourth will be a imposing feature. Several of the business people here are already preparing to have floats in line and more are expected to be on hand when the parade forms. The Singer Sewing Machine company will be in line, while Frank McClure, the Fifth street grocer, will have something to show as well as the Atlantic Tea company. Adolph Beigel, of course, will be on deck. John Majors, chief marshal of the parade, will place the floats in good position, and urges all who can to make a showing.

At the meeting Tuesday night, it was decided to authorize Prof. I. T. Daniel, musical director of the school, to drill 400 or 500 girls dressed in National colors of red, white and blue to form an American flag. Prof. Daniel has had experience in this feature, having drilled a corps of girls to represent a flag several years ago in Canton, O., when the President visited that city.

Chief Marshal Majors states that several citizens from various parts of town have volunteered to help organize the boys to march in the parade. He asks the help of others in this feature, as a "Boys' Brigade" would make an imposing feature.

As arranged now the order of exercises will be the big parade in the morning, followed by the speeches by John Mitchell and Judge J. F. Taylor from stands erected in "The Pines." This will take up the entire forenoon, and in the afternoon the sports and attractions will be pulled off. These will include a 100 yard dash open to miners only, for a $50 prize; two balloon ascensions with two parachute drops; the firemen's hose race; the ball fight, and ball game, with the great fireworks display in the evening. The Italian Band of Charleroi has been engaged as one of the three bands for the occasion, and will appear in their new uniforms for the first time. Band concerts will be a feature.

Letters have been received from a Wild West Show, which offers to give five attractions on the streets and many other shows asking for concessions. Burgess G. W. Risbeck states that he will not permit dynamite canes or Jackson fire crackers to be used in the streets and he hopes that none of the merchants will offer them for sale. Other meetings will be held from time to time to still further perfect the arrangements.

Church Social

An ice ream and strawberry social will be held by the ladies of the United Brethren church at Dunlevy Monday evening, May30. Cake will also be served. All are coridally invited. 238t2

Notice.

A Dream Entertainment will be given by the Ladies League of the M. E. church on Friday evening June 3. An admission of 15 cents will be charged and ice cream a d cake served free. 239tf

CHRISTIANS TAKE OVER WASHINCTON PRESBYTERIANS

Top Notchers Prove Too Much For the Team on Bottom Rung

When the score keeper got tired of keeping tally of the errors, the hits and the scores, and the numerous other incidentals, he perspired at the Washington Avenue-Christian baseball affair last night. The game was replete with all the trimming that one could not wish, and errors especially predominated.

The Christians got four in the first one in the second, two in the first and just for fun four in the fourth. The Washington Avenues just for nothing else, scored three in the first one in the second and by a mighty wave of bases on balls one in the sixth.

The game was called in the sixth on account of darkness at which juncture the score, was 11 bones for the Christians to five wishes for the Washington Avenues. Score;

The Monnessen News of yesterday's date contained the following article:

"The mystery surrounding the sudden disappearance of Fred Patton, employed as a chemist at the Pittsburg Steel plant and a son of Dr. Patton of North Belle Vernon, has been finally cleared up as the young man has been heard from in Denver, Colorado and telegraphed his sister, Mrs. R. F. Allen, that he would arrive home today.

"Young Patton, who is about 23 years old and married, left home about seven o'clock Wednesday a week ago and until this, Wednesday, morning nothing was heard of his whereabouts and his wife to whom a child was born a short time ago was greatly worried. In an interview with his sister, Mrs. Allen, a representative of this paper was informed that Mr. Patton telergaphed that he would explain all on his arrival home today."

DESERVED PROMOTION

Charleroi Young Man Advanced to Place in Pittsburg Office

OTHER CHANGES ARE MADE

Herbert Swartzlander, who for about two years has occupied the position of shipping clerk in the local office of the Pittbsurg Plate Glass company, has received notice of his promotion to a position in a department of the Pittsburg office. William Kuhn of Speers, who has been in the local office for some years, will succed Mr. Swartzlander in the local office and Mr. Kuhns' place will be taken by Bannister Roberts of Charleroi. Mr. Swartzlander is a deserving young man and his promotion is well merited. Mr. Kuhn is also a faithful and capable employe of the local plant, and doubtless will make good. Mr. Roberts is the son of R. A. Roberts of Crest avenue, and is a graduate of High School and Douglas Business College.

Call It An Outrage.

To The Mail: One of the most unmanly and brutal affrays took place in plain view of from 20 to 30 citizens of Charleroi this morning in which two railroad berilings or so-called detectives played the part in one of the most disgraceful scenes ever heard of in any civilized community. That a riot was averted is due to the fact that the liberty-loving citizens of Charleroi expect to bring the principals to justice. This is how it happpened. A poor Hungarian just landed in this country, after leaving his train, strayed along the railroad track in search of his friends. He was immediately pounced upon, and with a nipper on each wrist and not satisfied with this, he was thrown on his back and beaten with a billy until the hearts of those who saw it grew sick.

AUSTRIANS ANGRY BECAUSE OF ARREST

A representative of the Austrian counsul in Pittsburg came to Charleroi yesterday in regard to the case of the arrest of Marlin Chandos for trespassing on the railroad. Friends of the man make the statement that under the circumstances the officers went beyond their jurisdiction to arrest the man, and that undue force was used. Suit is threatened.

Memorial Day.

Before another issue of the Mail appears Memorial Day will have come and gone. With preliminary religious services on Sunday, followed by the solemn tributes on Monday to our soldier dead in commemorative observance of the day and date, the Nation practically takes a holiday. Work will be suspended as far as possible, and the day will be devoted to recreation.

While there are some who believe the day should be observed in solemn austerity, this is not in accord with human nature. It is a day to be glad, rather than to be sad. To our hallowed dead we ever cherish a loyal sentiment, but it is not God's providence for man to continually mourn his bereavements. Life has its duties and obligations, and it is those who meet them with a smiling and undaunted courage who best fulfill the destiny for which they were created. Poignant grief is softened by time into tender memories, which though cherished, cannot be made a living rule of action. Rational enjoyment and recreation on Memorial Day does not detract in the least from the solemn import of the occasion, and it makes better men and women of all who take full advantage of the holiday. Sunshine and happiness are more conducive to patriotism than mourning and gloom.

Louder Than Words.

Actions speak louder than words. The man who professes a principle which his actions belie, inspires not only no confidence on the part of his neighbors, but excites their contempt, which is merited. This is the case with T. L. Kennedy, who is opposing Congressman J. K. Tener for Congress. Mr. Kennedy professes one thing, which his previous actions show him to have opposed in the past.

In one of his letters to the public Mr. Kennedy poses "As an ardent admirer of Theodore Roosevelt, and a firm believer in the policies for which he stood for." Yet Mr. Kennedy, while a member of the Legislature from Beaver county, lent his official action to aid in a hostile demonstration designed by politicians to embarrass President Roosevelt's administration. This was in the session of 1905, when a resolution was introduced commending President Roosevelt's purpose to secure legislation by Congress to stop discrimination in freight rates and the payment of rebates by railroads, and requesting our Senators and Congressmen to support such measures. Mr. Kennedy opposed it, and on the final passage of the resolution he voted "No."

This action is on record in the House Journal of 1905, and can be found in pages 303-308. This is how he stood by the Roosevelt policies when in the Legislature, and on this record he asks the support of Col. Roosevelt's supporters and friends.

Our Celebration.

During the Memorial Day holiday, when many people will meet and greet friends from a distance, one should not forget our Fourth of July celebration. This will be a good time to boost the affair, and to put it before the public in a personal way. The forthcoming celebration has been and is being systematically boosted, but personal boosting also reaches a class that may be indifferent to printed advertisements.

Every Charleroi resident who receives visitors at home, or who goes away to spend Memorial Day, should not neglect to exploit the attractions which Charleroi will present on the Fourth. We are going to have a big day, and every one who comes here will get more value received for the money in the way of thrillers and sensations than can be had elsewhere. Impress this upon every one you meet Monday, and results are sure to follow.

THE MYSTERY OF MARS.

Old but Unsolved Problem. Is There Animal Life on the Planet?

With a planet so old as Mars and so far along in the process of life extinction the conditions of life would be severe, and only a highly intellectual and scientifically developed race could endure and master them. The engineering skill and constructive capacity to control the annual floods from the poles, store the waters and build the thousands of miles of huge canals would require scientific knowledge beyond that possessed by us at the present time and financial resources in excess of those we have yet accumulated. The nation that finds the digging of a little ditch at Panama so great a task would be helpless in the face of such a problem as these thousands of miles of Martian canals, if, indeed, canals they be. Yet, in view of the greater life age of Mars, such higher intelligence would be natural in the regular process of development, assuming that it has ever been the abode of intellectual life.

Scientists are in the main in a receptive state on this subject. They are not ready to admit that the existence of life on that planet has been [illegible] for greater proof than a plausible theory. Among others than scientists there is in the main a disposition not to accept the Martian human life theory or the theory of life on any of the thousands of spheres that wheel and glisten in illimitable space. They seem to think that such a theory conflicts with [illegible] and dwarfs man and his importance in the scheme of creation.

This seems to be a very narrow view to take since it appears to set bounds upon the infinite power and creative desires of the Almighty, whose great scheme of mortal and immortal life is not necessarily confined to a single planet or the few billions of human beings who are born and die upon it. As to dwarfing the importance of man, a few billions more added to the billions on earth would make little difference. Man is at best a small and insignificant creature, but if all embracing wisdom, power and love takes solicitous note of him it would be limiting those infinite qualities to say that one planet must be his abiding place. Therefore the question of human intelligence on Mars or any other planet of the solar system or the other great systems in remote space should be purely and simply a scientific one, to be accepted as true only when proved, but not to be rejected through sentiment or for any other reason whatever except lack of proof.—St. Louis Star.

THE WAKING PROCESS.

Easy Scheme to End Your Sleep at Any Hour You Wish.

"We hear it frequently asserted that persons will impress the thought upon their minds and continue [illegible] that they desire to awake at a certain hour in the morning they will do so without fail," said Dr. Joseph Boehm in the St. Louis Republic. "But how many people have tried this method of insuring a prompt awakening at a given hour in the morning only to find their rest throughout the night disturbed and uneasy.

"The brain will usually respond to the will and awaken one in the morning near the desired hour under any circumstances, but to prevent the unbroken, uneasy sleep the adoption of only a very simple device is necessary. The last thing before getting into bed take a watch or clock and turn the hands to the hour at which one wishes to rise and gaze at this just long enough to fix the hour firmly on the retentive memory. Then if no other absorbing thoughts intervene between that and the moment one is locked in slumber the night's rest will be easy and unbroken and promptly at the hour in the morning as a rule one will find oneself released from sleep and wide awake. There is no need to repeat it over and over in the mind. All this makes the brain uneasy and results in the disturbed slumber. Simply look at the watch or clock, as I have indicated, and the influence of the mind over matter will be clearly demonstrated in the morning. Try it some night and observe how smoothly this physiological fact works."

Optimistic.

"My wife is a very optimistic woman."

"Indeed she is."

"Noticed it, have you?"

"Yes; when I was talking with her yesterday she said that if you ever died she would marry again because she felt sure that she could do better next time."—Houston Post.

Too True.

A woman's aim is bad, 'tis said.

And throws herself at some man's head
She lands right at his feet

Eluding the Officers.

Here is an amusing description of one of Balzac's periods of impecuniosity. Merv, the poet, a great friend of Balzac, was an inveterate gambler and rarely left the card table before daybreak. His way lay past the Cafe de Paris and for four consecutive mornings he had met Balzac strolling leisurely up and down dressed in pantaloons and frock coat with velvet facings [illegible] morning Merv felt impressed at the coincidence, the third [illegible] the fourth he could [illegible] longer and asked Balzac the reason of these nocturnal perambulations and about the same spot.

Balzac put his hand in his pocket and produced an almanac showing that the sun did not rise before 7:50. "I am being tracked by the officers of the tribunal de commerce and obliged to hide myself during the day, but at this hour I am free and can take a walk, for as long as the sun is not up they cannot arrest me."

Russian Vengeance.

The Russian revolutionaries have absolutely no mercy on those who betray them. It is well known that in the year 1903 a traitor caught at Odessa was bricked up alive in a cellar.

Regnier, a French spy in the pay of the Russian police, for a long time eluded the vengeance of the revolutionaries. But they caught him at last, and that just at the moment when he fancied himself safe. His body was found in his cabin on a ship which reached Antwerp. He had been suffocated by fumes of sulphureted hydrogen. How this was done was never discovered.

SOLDIER BOYS HAVE THE CALL AS CANDIDATES

Sheriff Jud Bruff Makes Enthusiastic Address to Tenth Men Who Rally For "Hop" Anderson.

POLIAICAL SHARPS GO DOWN BEFORE WARRIORS

In the rally by Spanish-American war veterans Wednesday evening in the Hotel Siegel at Washington, Sheriff Jud Bruff of Allegheny county, who himself, as a soldier candidate made a winning fight and won an overwhelming victory in Allegheny county, made a stirring speech endorsing the candidacy of Attorney A. H. Anderson for State Senate. As a soldier Sheriff Bruff's address could not be otherwise than would that would quicken the pulse of every man who had faced death upon the field of battle. As he said, the soldier's service to his country are not forgot when guns of the political enemy are pointed toward him.

Sheriff Bruff said in part:

Gentlemen and Comrades: We have inv ded your fair county tonight, not for the purpose of dictating to you

whom you shall vote for, or state senator in this district, but to ask your respectful consideration of the claims and qulifications of our old friend and comrade of Phillippine fighting days when he in common with many others, fought, bled and swam for our country. Some of the boys didn't come back, some came back in their coffins and many returned to die from illness and disease contracted in the Philippine marches and jungles.

"I do not wish to make a spread-eagle speech, for should I attempt one would fail, but it is well to remember in time of peace, the services of those who have offered themselves as targets for the enemy's bullets in time of war.

"The voters have never failed to show their preference for a soldier over a politician. Take our presidents for example. After the Civil war we had Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Harrison. They were not politicians but they made good presidents. Their honor and integrity stands out today undisputed by any.

"Occasionally we find the soldier and politician combined in one. Take Roosevelt for example. He was a great soldier and who shall say that he is not the greatest politician of the age.

"The soldier boys ought to be able to beat the politicians at their own game. The first lesson they learn after "Hayot," "Strawfoot" is to act in unison. What would be the outcome of a battle if every soldier went in on his own hook and fought according to his own notion of how things ought to be done. Inglorious and decisive defeat would be the portion of such a ridiculous army. Just so in the political game. Unity of action wins. Look at the Grand Army. To a man they stood back of Grant, Hayes Garfield and Harrison. Look at the case of Roosevelt. The politicians tried their best to sidetrack him and what was the result? He became the most powerful man politically that the counrty has ever known.

"With these examples before us and other lesser ones all around us let us get together and show the "organization" that politics is a game that they have no mortgage on.

"In Allegheny county a year ago I was a candidate for sheriff. The "organization" laughed at my humble claims and proceeded to slate an old office holder who had served them well. What the soldier boys did to that outfit is a matter of history. They charged the selfish combine front and flank and sent them scooting for the tall timbers.

"They are back in the game again today but they are mighty careful to say nothing derogatory of the soldier because they have discovered that the people will not stand for it. I wish gratefully to remember the services of the veterans in that glorious campaign of Civil war days. They showed that they still know how to rally around the flag with that same courage as in the old days when they charged into certain death at such places as Cold Harbor and Fredericksburg.

"In commending to your attention the services of Comrade Anderson, I am not unmindful of the fact that a state senator should possess ability and integrity as well as courage. Having known Comrade Anderson and having been familiar with his career in the Philippines and at home, I do not hesitate to say that he is an ideal man for the place. He is a man of progessive ideas, and will, if nominated and elected, serve his constituents as well at Harrisburg as he did for $15.66 a month in the the Philippines. Having been a soldier and faithful citizen, it seems to me, is sufficient guarantee that he will make a good senator.

"All the other surrounding counties which have been represented in the Philippines have accorded too the survivors political recognition. In Beaver county, four of the county offices, namely, Register, Recorder, Prothonotary and clerk of courts have been held by the members of the home company. In Greensburg, the two last district attorneys have been taken from the 10th Regiment and today, I have the honor to represent the old regiment as an official of Allegheny county. I see no reason why the two companies from Washington county with so many available and able men, should not be accorded political recognition as well as the other counties.

BECAUSE—his candidacy is a business proposition worthy of careful consideration.
BECAUSE—he has made an open and honest canvass for the nomination.
BECAUSE—he has treated his political opponent fairly and squarely.

FOR ASSEMBLY---GAYMAN SHRONTZ

West Bethlehem Township

I take this means of advertising myself as a candidate for Representative in General Assembly at the Republican primaries to be held June 4, 1910.

I submit my candidacy upon Christian principles which I have adopted in my every day life. I am opposed to cliques, machines and political factions, and to corruption in public affairs and in no way will ever be connected. I am for legislation against all vice and will work for and support legislation that will eliminate it as far as possible in a settled and satisfactory way.

I am in sympathy with the working men and will stand for legislation that will conserve the lives and protect the welfare of him and his family.

I am for progressive legislation for our schools and charitable institutions, also laws protecting municipalities as well as limiting the powers of unjust corporations.

I shall consider duty rather than selfish right or power.

I favor progressive approved measures on good roads.

I shall represent the modern ideals and conscience of the true citizen. I am a candidate of the thinking voters and hope you will approve of my ambitions and select me for your next representative. I shall give all of my time and honest service in return to favors.

Yours truly,

GAYMAN SHRONTZ.
